Spiritual Spring Cleaning: Making room for Spirit – At this time of year, many of us are cleaning our homes after a few months of everything being closed in. Simultaneously, on tv and through books, much emphasis is on the benefits of 'decluttering' our living and working spaces. What about considering our spiritual journey ... what needs 'cleaning'? Where haven't we looked in a while? As we move things around, what will we find? What do we need to let go of? What can we reclaim? All of this to make room for Spirit. Let's connect all of this to the Pentecost story, the one that reminds us that Spirit abides and moves within us. Two opportunities offered through the Adult Faith Formation Office, facilitated by Claudette Derdaele. Join us at St. Dunstan's church in Fredericton Tuesday, May 28th, from 6:30 to 9 pm. or Villa Madonna Monday, June 3rd, from 6:30 to 9 pm. To register, please contact Claudette at cderdaele@dioceseofsaintjohn.org or 506-386-7012.
